Follow the sun with your very own T-Line caravan, yes choose from one of these models of International Renown. Feel free as a bird, to go where you want, when you want, and still have all the luxury of home.

Follow the sun, have fun, all the way when you take your T-Line caravan weekending on the sundrenched shores or heather clad moors. Have fun on site enjoying the open air and companionship of your new found friends.

Follow the sun with your very own T-Line caravan designed to fulfil your every need, built to give you the ultimate in luxury. Thomsons combine over half a century of caravan experience and craftsmanship, with modern techniques to give you the superlative range of luxury caravans.

... and remember Thomson T-Line Towability is fabulous.

Quality interior decor combined with craftsmanship

Yes Thomsons only feature the very best in all their caravans, from carpets to roof ventilators. See the beautiful moquette upholstery in carefully selected designs, alongside the polished natural finished woodwork, indeed a dream to behold, and all this built by Scotland's finest craftsmen.

Thomson's modern factory

The Thomson factory covers 130,000 sq. ft. and is situated in 28 acres of land on the outskirts of Falkirk. From this well planned factory comes your T-Line caravan, here it is designed by experts and constructed in the very best of materials by the experienced hands of Thomson's craftsmen.

What's in a name?

All that could be desired in caravan quality is synonymous with the name of Thomson, yet there's something that's extra special about T-Line, yes it's the original and indisputable hallmark of quality, reliability and style.

Even the locks are designed

Yes, just look at this beautiful latch/lock on a T-Line caravan door, you just would not believe a lock could be so smart and neat, yet its just one of the many interior and exterior design features of the T-Line which make it the unique caravan designed with you in mind.

Complementing the superb 1968 Thomson range comes the Mini-Glen for either two or four persons. Specifically styled to meet the requirements of the small car owner, this exciting new concept in caravans weighs only  $8\frac{1}{2}$  cwts. Its ten inch wheels are interchangeable with those of the original British mini-cars and its weight only 75% of theirs – well within the limits considered ideal by the experts. In spite of its modest dimensions, 8' 6" long by 6' wide by 7' 6" high, the Mini-Glen is built to the same excellence of design and finish.

Second smallest caravan in the Thomson T-Line range, yet the luxury Glen can accommodate four adults in comfort – skilful planning ensuring that every inch of space is used to the best advantage. With the same technical specification as the larger T-Line models, the Glen provides mobility and comfort even with cars in the 1000 c.c. power range.

This particularly ingenious Thomson lightweight features four berths, a substantial wardrobe and excellent kitchen equipment which includes a gas hotplate, sink and draining board. Like most T-Line models, the forward section can be readily curtained off from the rear section, giving two separate apartments; the full-width "lowline" windows enabling all occupants to enjoy to the utmost a good view of their outside surroundings whilst relaxing in T-Line luxury.

gleneig

The Award-winning Glenelg accommodates four adults in supreme T-Line comfort. Most people will find the novel bunk-bed arrangement particularly pleasing – just one more example of Thomson brilliant planning which T-Line owners praise so highly. The Glenelg kitchen equipment includes a gas hotplate, sink and draining board – all easily concealed in the handsome kitchen cabinet – and the toilet compartment occupies a discreet corner position in the rear section.

The unique Glenmore has the special advantage of access doors on each side, a feature rarely found in even the most expensive caravans and certainly welcomed by those whose travels take them to foreign parts. Both doors are, of course, the popular stable type chosen for all T-Line models. In standard form the Glenmore sleeps four persons, but by a simple addition of the optional extra bed tray and mattress, readily sleeps five people.

gleneagle

T-LINE

Super-luxurious Gleneagle could well be your best T-Line choice. This wonderful caravan features sumptuous bed-settees, king-sized wardrobe, plenty of storage space and splendid cooking facilities. An ultra spacious holiday home for four – or more, by the addition of optional bunk beds, fully equipped with everything that matters – gleaming plastics wash basin, handy water pump and up to the minute style gas lighting – even a set of table ware.

In the background the magnificent rear apartment contains a sideboard, self contained toilet compartment and – at the far end – a neat kitchen unit containing a sink, draining board, water pump and gas cooker with two boiling rings, oven and grill.
